ON THE COVER - Prize winning floats in the Veterans' Day Parade. At the top the "United We Stand" float by the Old Rochester Class of 1973. Bottom - the sophomore float.

Hundreds lined the streets to view the tri-town parade which featured many floats and marching units from Mattapoisett, Marion, Rochester, Wareham and New Bedford.

Vocational School Voted

The Special Town meeting in Mattapoisett chose almost 2 to 1 to establish a Regional Vocational School with the towns of Rochester, Carver and Acushnet. The Mattapoisett vote was 87 to 44. During debate on the question, the very serious financial burden of the school systems upon the town was brought forth repeatedly by the voters. Mr. Bernard Talty and Mrs. Evelyn Pursley of the Regional Vocational Committee made the presentation to the assembly. Mr. Talty reported that, in addition to the State and Federal grants already reported on the fact sheet sent to town citizens, a further grant of $400,000.00 had been alloted to the Old Colony District under Public Law 9576. This is part of a Federal grant awarded to the New Bedford district that the School Committee had applied for. Mattapoisett's share of this $500,000.00 will be applied to offset the first payments on the capital cost as will interest money earned by the investment of 80% of the borrowed money until that money is needed to pay for the cost of the facility. The cost of the school is basically the same for the 4-town district as for the original six-town district. Mattapoisett has a guarantee of 26% of the total seats available and will pay operating costs in direct percentage based on the number of seats occupied.

Many points were answered during the debate. Old Rochester does have some shop training but it was pointed out that this training was very limited in time and in no way compared to vocational training. It was compared to building a bookcase as against building a house. It was also brought out that vocational training was in no way a dead end but that it is possible for a student to proceed to college training in the particular field he has chosen. Mr. Talty said that results of a poll taken at Old Rochester showed a high degree of interest in vocational training and that he believed that the experience of other towns would be reflected here. In other localities the available seats have several applications waiting. In most, the available seats are filled. The cost of the school is estimated at $29.00 per square foot which is 15% below the state average. Similar programs in the school will share common shop areas thereby reducing the space required. Under the Vocational Act of 1963 the town will be reimbursed 100% for the first year operating costs because every program is a new program for the school.

The first Town Meeting of the evening was held at 7:45 to vote out the towns of Lakeville and Freetown from the Old Colony District. All 4 remaining member towns of the Old Colony District voted simultaneously. The Mattapoisett vote was 95 yes to 15 no. The towns then checked by phone before proceeding to the second Town Meeting which was the consideration of the Regional Vocational School as Article 1. During the wait, Donald Fleming, the moderator, expressed the sincere approval of the Board of Selectmen to Miss Emily Perry who is retiring as executive secretary. Miss Perry was presented with a cake baked by Mrs. Evelyn Pursley and with a corsage. Mr. David Haley, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, added to Mr. Fleming's remarks. He said that Miss Perry has to retire by law and that the Selectmen hate to lose her. He said that she has been the finest town employee ever and "the town will miss her something awful".

Mr. Fleming then honored John Raphael who died this year. Mr. Fleming spoke of the endless service of Mr. Raphael to veterans, widows and the disabled. He said that John Raphael's devoted service to the town and to all of its citizens who needed him was second to none. He said that he felt a great personal loss and the Town had suffered a great loss. All stood for a minute of silence in respect to his memory.

Article 2 of the second Special Town Meeting concerned an incentive system for police officers who take academic courses in police work. It was amended to take effect on or after the annual town meeting. There was some confusion among the voters as to the reason the article could not be held for the Annual Town Meeting to consider. This led to a motion to table. The motion did not carry. Police Detective Robert Moore then explained the article and said that, until it was voted, the State would not even consider the accreditation of the courses being taken by the policemen at their own expense and time. He said that the article would reimburse the police officer for increasing his knowledge of police work. The article was then voted and carried.

Articles 3 and 4 concerned the acceptance of a State payment for town land taken in connection with the building of

Bill Weeks for REPRESENTATIVE

Bill Weeks is an attorney, was State Senator, Norfolk and Plymouth District from 1964 - 1970, and is a veteran of U.S. Army Air Force service in World War II. When I vote for my Representative to Congress, I feel that I know what Bill Weeks will do for the veterans, especially the Vietnam veteran. I don't know what the other fellow will do. I also feel that military service helps one to understand many of today's problems, especially the problems of veterans. I know the answers about Bill Weeks. I'm voting for Bill, and hope you will too.

"Plaza Suite"

AT ART CENTER

The Marion Art Center Players proudly announce the opening of their fall production, "Plaza Suite" to be presented on two consecutive weekends: November 3rd and 4th and November 10th and 11th. This Neil Simon hit is deftly directed by Nancylee Gaucher. Her talents have resulted in numerous musical successes at Old Rochester and her last Art Center production, "Mary, Mary" was very well received.

"Plaza Suite" takes place in the famous Plaza Hotel in New York. Three acts study various events that take place in the suite. Some familiar names as well as some new talent compose the cast.

In Act I, a visitor from Mamaroneck, Karen Nach, is played by Peg Dyer. Kay is trying to revitalize her marriage (and her husband, played by Dick Fairweather) by celebrating their anniversary at the Plaza where she meets her competition, his secretary. In Act II, a Hollywood producer, played by Dick Waterhouse, entertains his high school sweetheart, Murial, played by Kay Sweeney. Murial is married and unsure. Act III finds Norma and Roy Hubley, played by Joan Prescott and Paul Hart, visiting the Plaza Suite from Forest Hills. They have rented it for their daughter's wedding and are having more than the usual pre-wedding trauma. All in all, this trilogy makes for hilarious comedy. Neil Simon is a master at this. Nancylee Gaucher is well qualified to bring it to life and is ably assisted as director by Miss Sally Jones.

Because of the intimate atmosphere at the Marion Art Center, reservations must be made in advance. Refreshments will be served. Parties of four or more may request tables. Pleas make plans now to insure a seat. Call the Center, 748-1266, of Mrs. Tom McCarthy, 748-1077.

end in January. The national competition will be in May in Mobile, Alabama where America's Junior Miss will be selected and honored as the nation's number one teenager.

This is an opportunity for all high school senior girls to enter the local pageant which honors and rewards its participants. Scholarships, trophies and prizes will be awarded the winners and possibly the state and national crown will happen to Wareham's Junior Miss.

This year's pageant committee is under the guidance of Mr. Normand Desjardins, chairman, and the following individuals who will assist him in this project: "Sonny" Mallowes, Ken Gleason, Ken Kelley, Gordon Smith, Ed Donahue, Art Marcoux, Norman Trudell, Ralph Washburn, Rod Merrill and all other members of the club. The Regional Scholarship Club sponsors two events each year which enables them to give scholarships to a deserving graduating senior from the area high schools.

On hand to crown her successor will be the personable 1972 Junior Miss Nancy Jo Gibson who is presently in her freshman year at the University of Massachusetts. This young lady has charmed judges and competitors as well as anyone who has come in contact with her over the year.

Any senior girl wishing information or an application should contact R. L. Blair, 295-1482; or Normand Desjardins, 295-0162.

Remember the date: December 2nd at the Gilbert D. Bristol Auditorium at the Old Rochester Regional High School.

Seekonk Blanks O.R.

WARRIORS WIN 22 to 0

Old Rochester made a first down in the third quarter of the game with Seekonk. That was the high point of the game for Bulldog fans.

Seekonk dominated the game from beginning to end. OR received the ball and was unable to move it. Seekonk took over on their own 30. They marched steadily down the field for 69 yards to score on a pass from quarterback Mark Caracciolo to end Don Richard. Halfback Jon Hubbard rushed for the extra 2 points to make it 8 to 0. On the exchange the Bulldogs fumbled on their own 30. Seekonk was unable to score and the Bulldogs took over on their own 25 as the first period ended.

In the second period, Fred Roy of Seekonk picked off a Bulldog pass and ran to the OR 18. Seekonk scored on an 18 yard pass from Mark Caracciolo to his brother Dave. Mark passed to Mike Emond for the 2 points to make it 16 to 0. OR was unable to move and had to punt. The Warriors returned the punt to the OR 35. They ...ed downfield on a pass to the 9 and a pass to the 5. Hubbard scored

A New Name For An Old Institution

Yes, after doing business for 125 years as the Wareham Savings Bank, we are changing our name!

Beginning November 1st, when we merge with the Plymouth Savings Bank, another fine and even older institution, our name will become PLYMOUTH SAVINGS BANK. Parting with our former name is not easy for us because it has become a familiar part of us which you have grown to recognize over the years. Our new name, however, retains the historical significance of the broader areas we serve, and, in effect, ties us to a heritage which dates back to the very beginning of our great country.

To you, the customer of the former Wareham Savings Bank, the new PLYMOUTH SAVINGS BANK will offer the services of a banking institution having assets of approximately $120,000,000. and three full-service offices. The creation of this consolidated bank is a positive, forward step which can now provide greater services and facilities to the Wareham-Plymouth-Falmouth area.

PLYMOUTH SAVINGS BANK is more than a new name for an old institution, because it signals the beginning of an entirely new era: the initial step which prepares our new bank for the future growth expected in the Wareham-Plymouth-Falmouth area in the years ahead.

well. A 38 yard touchdown pass from Mark to Dave was called back on a penalty.

As the game ended the Warriors were on the OR 5 and driving. OR's deepest penetration was to their own 40 yard line. They made 2 first downs to the Warriors' 8.

Friends of Library

Friends of the Mattapoisett Library held a meeting on October 19th. Mr. Fred A. Bieringer and Mrs. Robert H. Humphrey, trustees, were present and Mr. Bieringer spoke briefly, welcoming the Friends as a group interested in the library. The Friends will fill needs not in the areas covered by the trustees. The by-laws were voted on and accepted. Book delivery for shut-ins will begin immediately and those wishing to take advantage of this service may call the Library, 758-2212. Another project is to get a bicycle rack for use at the library.

Following the business meeting Mrs. George W. H. Smith, Jr. showed films of her safari in East Africa.

Anyone wishing to join this group may do so by paying the annual dues of $1.00 to Dr. M. C. Rosenfield or leaving it at the library desk.

Election Reflection

Editorial, D.C.I.

If there is anyone about to vote in the coming national election who is undecided, about to follow party lines, who considers peace of the paramount importance, then these people should read one short article by Stewart Alsop which first appeared in Newsweek and is reprinted in the October 1972 issue of the Readers' Digest on Page 148. and with no direct nuclear confrontation, Mr. Alsop makes a point which deserves the consideration of every thinking United States citizen regardless of political party and ideological conviction. No other point in this campaign is as important to all of us as is the security of our country and the balance of power upon which turns the balance of peace.

I challenge every reader to read this article, reach his own conclusion and vote his conscience. If you can't find the October 1972 issue at home, the Library will have it. We will keep a copy in the Presto office for anyone to read here. It is two pages long. It is worthy of your time.
